New Freeway Hearing Ahead

Orinda Association Asks For New Quarry Hearing

A two-point motion passed by the Orinda Association Board of Directors Monday night asked the Board of Supervisors to re-open its hearing on the much-disputed Redwood Canyon quarry and denied that the association is backing the A. J. McCosker application for the quarry permit.

At a board meeting in the Orinda School auditorium, board members unanimously passed the motion by Robert Walpole that:

1. THE ASSOCIATION request that the Board of Supervisors re-open the hearing on McCosker's application in order to permit residents and other objectors to present their arguments, "inasmuch as they were not given adequate notice of the previous hearing."
2. The association Board of Directors announce that at no time did it approve the proposed land use for the quarry.

THIS ACTION came in the wake of a June 19 public hearing at which the opponents and proponents of the quarry, the latter including McCosker himself, waged a verbal tug-of-war before the supervisors.

At the conclusion of the June 19 public airing, the supervisors announced that the hearing was closed and that they would render their decision on the application on July 10.

Assertion that McCosker had given the impression at the hearing that he had the support of the Orinda Association was voiced by Mrs. Ritchie Ward, association secretary, and by a delegation from the Lost Valley Community Association at Monday's meeting.

THEY JOINTLY urged the board to correct that impression. This it did.

Mrs. Ward also told the directors that notices of the supervisors' hearing had been posted on Redwood Canyon Road but not on Lost Valley Drive.

She pointed out that the county is supposed to post notices on the road nearest the site. Lost Valley Drive, she said, is only a mile from the proposed quarry site.

Contention against the quarry site was also voiced by Mrs. Wilbur Koehler and Mrs. Marvin Kennedy, both of Lost Valley.

JOE PRINCE, Lost Valley Community Association delegate to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, stated that at the June 19 Civic Affairs meeting he had expressed his personal opinion that McCosker's plans did not seem too bad.

McCosker stated at the June 19 hearing that the many written and vocal protests of Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and other area residents are "so exaggerated I haven't paid much attention to them."

His plan is to operate a rock quarry on a property which extends from Pinehurst Road, near the mouth of the Sacramento Northern Railroad tunnel, northward to the crest of a bare ridge which comes down from Round Top and extends also well over the ridge into Moraga Valley.

Sudden Attack Of Meningitis Kills 6-year-old

An attack of meningitis struck 6-year-old John Ruppenthal at noon Monday. At 3:30 p.m., the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Ruppenthal, 22 Ivy Drive, was dead in Children's Hospital of the East Bay in Oakland.

The boy had just completed the first grade at the Del Rey School. According to his mother, the deadly disease struck suddenly and without warning. John had showed no previous symptoms, she said.

Funeral services, restricted due to the contagious nature of the disease, was presided over by the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Cooper of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Ruppenthal and the boy's grandparents, Mrs. K. P. Ruppenthal of Illinois and Mrs. Francis B. Jones of Corvallis, Or., attended.

John was born in Peoria, Ill., and had a younger sister, Ann, 3, and brother, Mark, 2. The Ruppenthals have been living in Orinda for the past four years.

Library Drive Returns Show $52,000 Gross

Final returns of the Field Group division of the Orinda Library Building Fund have been tabulated at $52,000, according to an announcement made today by Melvin S. Jacobus, campaign treasurer.

"The more than 400 Orinda women, known as 'Library Lassies,' who canvassed the community on a house-to-house basis under the leadership of Mrs. Donald Krotz, ought to be commended," Jacobus stated.

"I have been a resident of Orinda for nearly 20 years," he continued, "participating in many civic projects. But for enthusiasm and community response, this effort tops them all."

Jacobus added, "I am sure the special gifts division, headed by Bruce Howard, and the business district division, under the leadership of Walt Friberg and Bob Gemetti Jr., will show comparable results."

Administration chairman William M. Fleeger said, "This is a most inspiring project, and I would like at this time to publicly acknowledge our thanks to Kaiser Industries for their gift of the printed material; to Lairds Stationers for the office supplies; to the Nopco Chemical Company for the office furniture; to the Bridwell Real Estate for headquarters space, and to the many others, too numerous to mention at this time."

Phone Official Discusses Dial Building Plans

Revised architectural drawings of the $1,400,000 dial equipment building planned by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company for the west side of Santa Maria Way, across that road from Pine Grove School, were shown to the Orinda Association board Monday night.

They were presented by E. F. Harding, Richmond district manager of the telephone company, at the board meeting in the Orinda School auditorium.

HARDING REPORTED that, following conferences with Chairman James Hupp and member William Penn Mott Jr. of the Orinda Association's planning committee and Association Director F. A. Sawyer, the company had modified its original plans for the structure.

Harding stated that additional windows will be installed, that the roof will be brown or reddish brown, and that the grounds will be attractively landscaped.

"MOTT WILL SUBMIT the names of four or five landscape architects," Harding said. "We'll work something out."

"We expect to do the grading during the summer. Construction will take six to eight months. By the end of next year we should have the dial equipment all installed."

"This will result in automatic message accounting for Orinda, which will mean you will be able to dial direct anywhere in the Bay area, and direct to New York, Los Angeles and many other long-distance points."

Booker Forwards Request For Commission Session

Next step in the controversy over routing of the western leg of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway will probably be a hearing in this area conducted by the California Highway Commission, Assistant State Highway Engineer B.W. Booker said late Wednesday.

Booker said that following the June 21 hearing before the State Division of Highways at Miramonte High School auditorium in southern Orinda he has requested that the commission conduct a hearing.

He added that the commission "always" holds such hearings in the area involved.

Asked if he knew when the commission hearing would be held, Booker said, "It won't be in July, because I'll be away in July, and I will be present at the commission hearing."

The assistant state highway engineer, who is in charge of the District IV office of the Division of Highways in San Francisco, explained that he has made his request through the state highway engineer in Sacramento, to whom he has also submitted a complete report of the June 21 hearing.

G.T. McCoy is the state highway engineer and chief of the Division of Highways.

THE JUNE 21 hearing before the Division of Highways lasted over four hours. Approximately 250 persons were present during the early portion of the session, but toward its close the audience had dwindled to around 75.

Booker and two members of his staff, District Engineer J. P. Sinclair and Assistant District Engineer C. F. Greene, explained the reasons for the state engineers' tentative recommendation of a route which would include a direct, approximately straight line course from Bollinger Canyon Road near St. Mary's College to the vicinity of Miramonte High School.

The western end of the freeway portion would be at Eastwood Court and Park Boulevard in Oakland.

Already approved is the eastern portion of the future freeway, from the St. Mary's College vicinity to Alcatraz Junction.

Booker explained that the route would close the gap between two previously adopted portions.

IN ADDITION to the state-favored route, three other possible routes were discussed:

1. A route slightly south of the state-favored route, and looping south of Moraga townsite.
2. The Indian Valley route, still further south.
3. The Redwood Canyon route, south of the Indian Valley route.

Greene stated that the Redwood Canyon route is 1.2 miles longer than the state-favored route, which is the shortest. The Indian Valley route, Greene pointed out, is 1.1 miles longer than the recommended route.

GREENE STATED that a tunnel of some 2150 feet would be required for the Redwood Canyon route, and that each of the other three routes would require a 1670-foot-long tunnel.

He added that construction costs would be about equal for the recommended route and the Moraga loop—about $11 million—but that the Indian Valley route would cost about $800,000 more, and that the Redwood Canyon route would cost about $1 million more.

Sinclair and Greene declared that the state-favored route would thus be the cheapest and the most direct.

SINCLAIR REPORTED that plans call for a 166-foot right-of-

County's Stand On Freeway Line Stirs Dispute

Sharp disagreement revolved this week around the county's old position to the state-favored direct route for the western leg of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

Expressed opinions ranged from censure by the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council to praise by the Lincoln Estates, Ranchitos de Moraga, Moraga del Rey, Inland Valley and Lost Valley associations.

The county view was read by Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings at the June 21 State Division of Highways hearing at Miramonte High School, in the form of a letter addressed to Assistant State Highway Engineer B. W. Booker.

In effect, this view was that the State Division of Highways should drop its plans for the direct route in the vicinity of Miramonte High School, in favor of one of the other three routes — one looping south of Moraga townsite; the Indian Valley route, south of the southern loop; and the Redwood Canyon route, still further south.

THE WOMEN'S PLANNING Council, in a press release this week, stated:

"The Women's Planning Council wants to know where the letter is now; who wrote the letter; when the board held its public deliberations on this matter; where are the studies upon which the board relied in making its decision; why is the board ignoring the general plan for Moraga?"

"APPRECIATION" for the county stand was expressed in a letter to the Board of Supervisors, signed by the following presidents of neighborhood associations: Lloyd MacDonald, Lincoln Estates; L. G. Brown, Ranchitos de Moraga; George Driscoll, Moraga del Rey; Kenneth Ruppenthal, Inland Valley; F. L. Brown, Lost Valley.

This letter, submitted to the board Tuesday by Mrs. Holland DuBois of Lincoln Estates, stated:

"By this note we wish to express our appreciation for your stand at the public hearing June 21 concerning the Shepherd Canyon Freeway. We feel that your action was logical and well considered, and that it reflected proper concern for the welfare of the residents of the area affected, and the county as a whole."

"Your objection to the red route (number 4) and recommendation that further consideration of alternative routes be made was well received in our area."

"The preponderant majority of residents in this area are members of our combined improvement associations, and we still feel that the blue and red routes through the Moraga Valley (numbers 3 and 4) are definitely undesirable. We believe our feelings

VA 'Will Not Build Hospital Where Opposed'

By SHERMAN PEARL

The Veterans Administration, still seeking a site for a replacement of its Oakland hospital, has announced that it will not build where it is opposed.

It is considering new areas, it said, in place of the originally selected site adjacent to Miramonte High School.

Assemblyman Donald Doyle revealed on June 21 that the VA had decided not to build the hospital on the Orinda site. He made the announcement at the State Division of Highways' public hearing on the Shepherd Canyon Freeway route, after speaking to VA administrator H. V. Higley in Washington.

NORMAN LODGE, assistant to Higley, noting the opposition that has developed in the Orinda area to the site, stated recently that "We do not want to build our hospital where we are not wanted."

He disclosed that the VA selection of the disputed site is still tentative.

"Selection of the Moraga site is not final as yet," he stated.

"We haven't even made soil tests, although as a preliminary we have asked the Utah Construction Company for permission to do so."

"BUT WE STILL have two or three other sites under consideration."

The VA has already rejected several proposed sites as unacceptable. Included among these were the Parks Air Force Base at Pleasanton and Benicia, both of which had asked for consideration as possible sites.

Walnut Creek, which has been mentioned as a site, is still a possibility.

Although Camp Stoneman and the Pittsburg area had also been previously rejected, the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce was notified recently that hope remains for a possible location of the hospital at Camp Stoneman.

CURTIS A. ROOS, acting chief of the Veterans Administration's real estate division, said in a letter to J. G. Greene, chamber president, that "full consideration will be given by the VA to a request that the Army camp be studied as a possible site."

VA consideration may also be given to Martinez for the eight-story hospital. Representative John F. Baldwin said recently, out seriously hampering the effectiveness of law enforcement in other parts of the county," the report continues.

"We strongly recommend that the subsequent grand jury follow the problem closely and request periodic reports from both the Sheriff and District Attorney."

"THE POLICE problem in the unincorporated area north of Richmond is extremely serious. Foot patrols have proven the only effective means of keeping vice and gambling under control in the area."

"We recommend that the foot patrol be continued; that the patrol be under the direct control of the inspector of the Richmond sub station and that he be held responsible for policing the area. If additional personnel are re-needed to accomplish the recommendation they should be made available," states the report of the jury.

Harry Brown, Contra Costa County Sheriff, in an interview with The Sun said:

"North Richmond has been the sorest spot in the county for years. At present we are trying to obtain two colored deputies to patrol the area in addition to our foot patrol. I feel this would alleviate the problem considerably," he said.

When asked if his office would give serious consideration and study to the grand jury report and then adopt the recommendations made he said:

"I HAVEN'T read the report yet, but what's the sense of having a grand jury if their recommendations aren't studied and adopted.

The grand jury expressed a vote of confidence in the Sheriff's office by stating:

"THE 1954-1955 grand jury made a special inquiry into the activities of the Sheriff's Department. It is the opinion of this committee that many of the criticisms leveled at the Department at that time would no longer be valid."

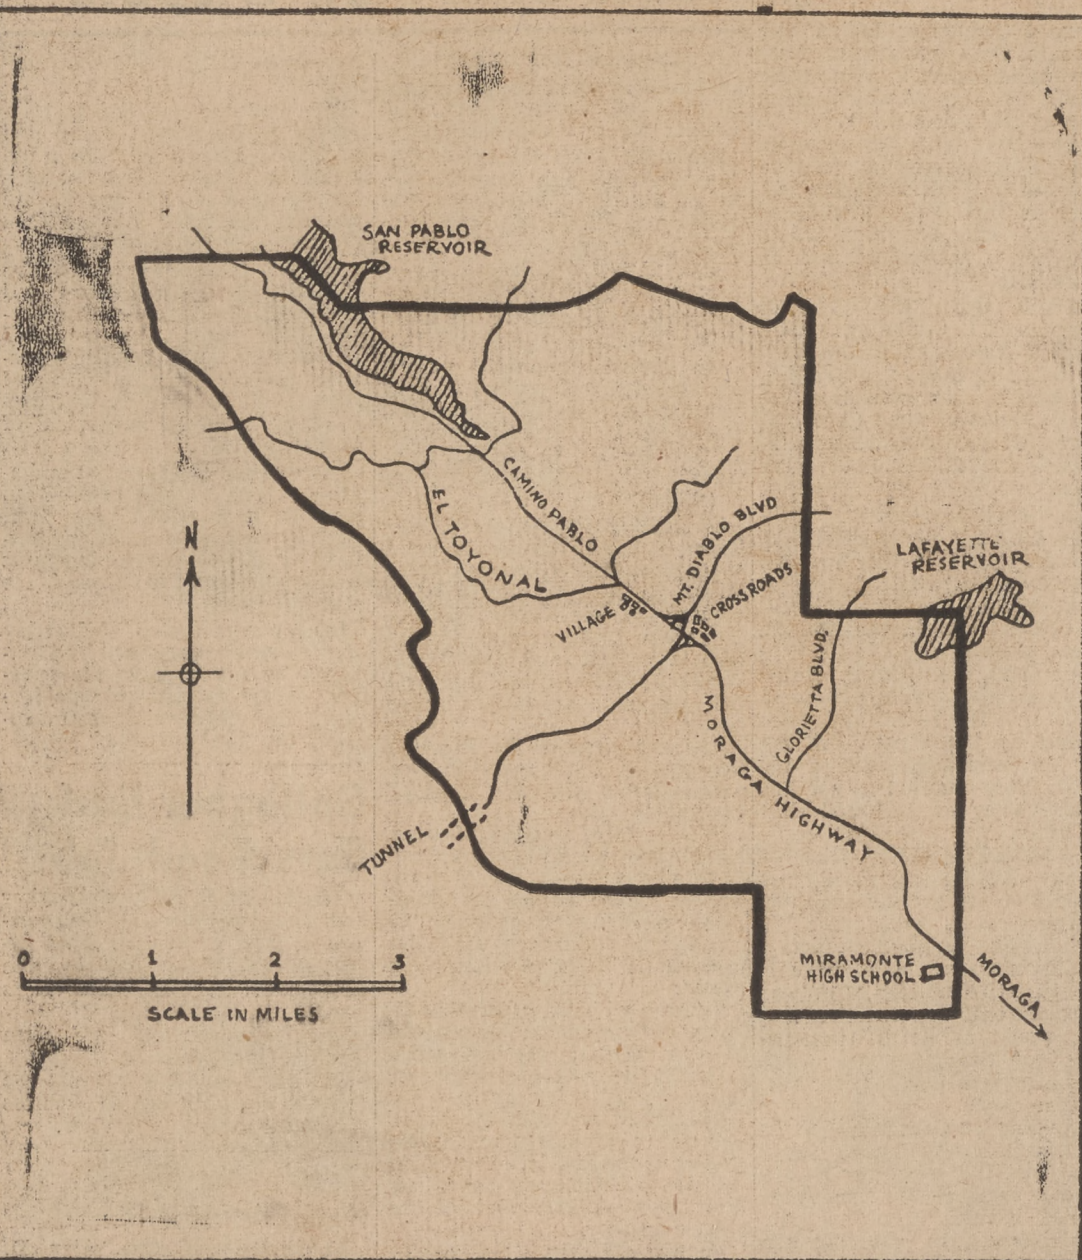

Members of the law enforcement committee were: Charles Mahon, chairman; John M. Hogan, Harry Gray, Max Pearl and Thomas A. Herbert, inactive because of illness.

Next week in The Sun a report on each committee's finding and their recommendations will be presented.

JUDGE FOREMAN Frank Coats in his report to Judge Harold Jacoby, presiding judge, said: "Service on a grand jury offers the opportunity of dispassionate observation and access to factual information, and it is my conviction after a 12 month exposure that Contra Costa County has a Board of Supervisors deeply interested in the welfare of the most effectively and remarkably free of political influence," said Coats.

In conclusion Coats points out that his suggestions in his report to Judge Jacoby are of a personal nature and not those of the entire grand jury.

Support Orinda's Library Fund Drive!

PROPOSED BOUNDARIES for the suggested city of Orinda are shown on this map. The proposed city would cover a 20-square-mile area. The boundaries were approved by the County Boundary Commission Tuesday, with only a minor revision. This map is in the report of the Orinda Association's incorporation study committee, copies of which are at the Orinda Library. Petitions that an incorporation election be held will be circulated early next month, and a "Town Hall" meeting on the subject will be held July 10 at Orinda School auditorium.

Orinda City Limits OK'd; Petitions Out Next Week

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Developments occurred rapidly this week in the movement to incorporate Orinda as a city by next February. Highlights were:

1. Approval by the County Boundary Commission Tuesday of boundaries for the proposed city of Orinda.
2. Decision by the Orinda Association board to start circulation next week, shortly after the July 4 holiday, of petitions seeking an election on incorporation next January.
3. SCHEDULING of a "Town Hall" public meeting July 10, 8 p.m., at Orinda School auditorium, on the subject of incorporation.
4. Naming of Ted Sanford to head the committee which will conduct the petition drive.
5. Scheduling of a meeting for 9 a.m. tomorrow between the Orinda Association's incorporation committee and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce's incorporation study committee. This meeting was tentatively scheduled for Stanley Allen's office at the Prouse-Reitz store, according to Chairman Paul Pollack of the association committee.

At the meeting of the Orinda Association board Monday night at Orinda School auditorium, President Mel Arighi stressed:

"SIGNING of the petition does not constitute a vote in favor of incorporation — but, more importantly, it means a signature in favor of bringing the matter to an official balloting, thus allowing all voting Orindans to express themselves in an established, democratic manner."

Petitions must be signed by at least one-fourth of the owners of the land in the area involved, who must represent at least one-quarter of the assessed valuation of the land in the proposed city.

AFTER SUCH a petition is filed with the Board of Supervisors, the supervisors schedule a hearing, at which exclusions and additions of areas can be sought.

Following the hearing, the supervisors schedule an election date.

At such an election, a simple majority vote decides whether Orinda becomes a city.

BOUNDARY COMMISSION approval of proposed boundaries included one minor revision, according to Deputy County Assessor Jerry Tara — removal of about 50 acres in the southern part of Orinda near Ivy Drive and addition of about 40 other acres, so that the line would correspond to lot lines and property lines.

Pollack told the association board Monday night that among those to be invited to the July 10 "Town Meeting," will be Victor W. Sauer, county public works director; Howard Gardner, associate director, League of California Cities; John M. R. Hope, city clerk; chief administrative officer, City of Los Altos, and Harry A. Brown, Contra Costa County sheriff.

Selection of Sanford to head the petition drive committee was made at an incorporation committee meeting Tuesday night at the Oak Springs clubhouse.

12-Room Addition At Del Rey Built

The Orinda School District Board of Trustees and school supervisor Joseph L. Sheaff will visit Del Rey School next Tuesday at 2 p.m. to inspect the newly-completed construction of 12 additional rooms at the school.

Can It Really Be as Warm as We Think It Is?

Statistical-minded folk, sharing crowded shade spots with their more apathetic neighbors in an attempt to escape from Sol's blazing glory this week, were adamant in their assertions that it "just isn't as hot as it seems."

Listed among these record-keepers was the weatherman who, swearing innocence of the summer discomfort and sitting with his thermometer in cold storage, insisted that the week's high was "only" 98, recorded on Tuesday.

As it were, locals dressed in briefs reluctantly noted the day was still the hottest this year. And the same date last year, they conceded, the temperature was a blissful 64.

With the mercury climbing steadily, day by day, here's the progress it's taken this week:

	High	Low
June 21	88	43
June 22	90	45
June 23	88	47
June 24	77	46
June 25	89	43
June 26	98	51
June 27	96	51

Association Expects PIE Trial in Fall

Actual court trial of the Orinda Association's efforts to nullify administrative office district rezoning of Pacific Intermountain Express Company's parcel at the Pine Grove, and to prevent PIE from erecting an administrative office building there, is not expected until September or October.

This was stated Monday night at the Orinda Association board meeting at Orinda School auditorium, by Gladys Schwatka, association legal counsel.

Mrs. Schwatka and Director F. A. Sawyer pointed out that the current status of court proceedings, in which Superior Judge Allen Norris has the matter under submission, are merely in relation to efforts to obtain a temporary injunction.

ATTORNEY Nathan Engelberg, retained by the association to handle the case, appeared at a hearing before Judge Norris in Martinez last week.

Judge Norris, from Alameda County, was assigned to the Contra Costa County Superior Court for this matter, after Contra Costa judges disqualified themselves, Mrs. Schwatka told directors.

"Our main objective, in the court proceedings, is to get the entire matter heard by the court," Sawyer said.

MRS. SCHWATKA reported that in taking the matter under submission, Judge Norris continued the temporary restraining order until such time as he issues his preliminary injunction.

Efforts by the association for a permanent injunction will come later, at the actual trial on the merits of the matter, Mrs. Schwatka and Sawyer pointed out.

PIE was represented at last week's hearing by Attorney Bester Robinson.

The county, also named as a defendant, was represented by Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker.

Periodic reports from both the Sheriff and District Attorney concerning activities in the North Richmond area of the county were strongly recommended by the 1955-56 Grand Jury in the Grand Jury annual report which was released yesterday.

"The so-called North Richmond area is a reputed center of the vicious narcotics traffic as well as being notorious for vice and gambling activities. Rumors of influence and payoffs, although completely unsubstantiated, are sufficiently prevalent to cast doubt upon the law enforcement agencies of the county," states the reports.

"IT IS THE belief of the Law Enforcement Committee that the county cannot permit open defiance of the law in this area with-

Orinda Fire House 3 Set For Opening

The Orinda Fire District will acquire a "new look" sometime next week as the new Orinda Fire House No. 3 at Via Las Cruces and Honey Hill Road opens its doors and prepares for action in the area.

With construction on the $29,584 building having begun last March by the Romley Construction Company of Walnut Creek, work is being completed very close to schedule.

Addition of this third Orinda fire house means not only additional protection, but also that the Charles Hill area will be added to the district, transferred over from the Lafayette Fire District.

Since bright new equipment is traditional in a new fire house, the building will house a new fire truck which his now being specially built by the Van Pelt Company of Oakland.

The fire house will utilize two vehicles and will have four men on duty 24 hours a day.

Decision to build the fire house was rendered last January by the Board of Supervisors after they approved the plans of architect Wayne A. Littlejohn of Orinda.

A meeting of the fire board was held last night to decide on the opening day, according to Fire Board Secretary Clarence Betz.

Don't throw trash from your car. It is now against the law to be a litterbug. Keep roads clean.

New Officers Head Lion Meet

New officers headed the meeting of the Orinda Lions Wednesday evening at the Casa Orinda, the new permanent Lion meeting place.

Presiding over the meeting, at which plans for future Lion events were discussed, was President Jim Hull, who succeeded Joe Navone. Other new officers are:

George Hartzell Jr., first vice president; Jim Lucas, second vice president; Nate Gray, third vice president; Roy F. Stuart, treasurer; Ken Deichler, tailwaster; Robert Callum, lion-tamer; and Grill Squire, Floyd Mooney, Al Barastero and Rawlings Simon, directors.

Among the future Lion plans is the annual club fish fry, which will be held on July 28. The place is as yet undecided.

The Lions reported that the club has contributed $250 to the Library Building Fund, and urged each of its members to donate as much as he can individually, in the name of the club.

A report on the annual four day 481 Lions convention attended recently at Hobbs resort in Lake County was given by delegates Hull, Tom Pauli and Ken Courtwright.

They contended that although the student speaker representing the club, Bob Ruple, did not win the grand prize, he did very well.

Having the wheels of your automobile aligned and balanced periodically is an important service function. Correct wheel alignment makes steering easier, reduces wheel vibration and eliminates uneven tire wear.

Louis Stores 'Interested' --But No Sale

Louis Stores, which owns a 200-foot 1.16-acre parcel on the west side of Orinda Highway in the Planned Neighborhood Business District, has been "interested" in negotiating for the .68-acre Charles E. Phillips parcel immediately to the south — "but nothing came of it," T. E. (Ed) Louis, president of Louis Stores, said yesterday.

Louis, who returned to his Lafayette home Tuesday night from a 3½-week trip to Europe, told The Sun:

"We'd still be interested, if anything developed. However, at the present time there are no negotiations."

COMMENTING on persistent rumors that Louis Stores is interested in acquiring the Phillips property, Louis said:

"About a year ago we made an offer for the Phillips parcel; we were interested in it. But nothing came of it. We'd still be interested — but no negotiations are going on."

Louis, who lives at 1245 Panorama Drive, Lafayette, said he believes the Planned Neighborhood Business District in Orinda could best be developed if the owners of the undeveloped property there created a corporation and placed their various pieces of property into a "pool."

"IN THAT WAY the entire area could be properly developed into an integrated shopping district," he observed.

In any event, Louis Stores still plans to erect a market at its Orinda site, Louis said, but he added that there is "no timetable" at present for such a project.

He stressed that any project the company develops there will be done "in accordance with the wishes of the community and in harmony with the surroundings."

Mrs. Farmer is survived by her husband and sons Dixon, 15, an Acalanes High School student, and David, 11, a pupil at the Pine Grove School.

Funeral services were conducted the Flowers in Berkeley by the Rev. Albert Lucas, pastor of St. Stephan's Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Among those attending the rites were Mrs. Alma Porter, her mother, who had been living with the Farmers, and her brother, Fred Porter, who arrived from Los Angeles to attend.

way, with four lanes at first and range economic values, as was allowance for two extra lanes in the future. Additional right-of-way would be needed for frontage roads, he said.

He stated that interchanges have been planned for Ivy Drive, Jonas Hill Road and Bollinger Canyon Road — but he admitted that the state concedes faulty planning in connection with an Ivy Drive interchange, and he pointed out that this interchange could be relocated.

Following the state engineers' presentations, pro and con statements were made from the floor.

ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR of the state's direct route were offered by the Moraga Valley Community Club and the Moraga Valley Home Owners Association (through John B. Thune); Canyon Community Club (Mrs. John Shalby); California Botanical Organization (Dr. Herbert Mason); Mt. Diablo Audubon Society, Pleasant Hill Civic Council and Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council (Ed Clay); St. Mary's Orchard Association; Walnut Creek Garden Club; Sierra Club; Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County; Brother Thomas of St. Mary's College, and Mrs. Byron Bole of Orinda.

Eliot Hartman, chairman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, said that thus far his organization had insufficient knowledge to make a recommendation. An East Bay Municipal Utility District spokesman said EBMUD wants a route which would least disturb utility district reservoirs in the area.

OPPONENTS to the state-favored route included the Orinda Association (through Joe Zablocki, vice-chairman of the association's Civic Affairs Committee); the Acalanes High School District (through Superintendent Neil Parsons); the Moraga Del Rey Community Association; the Lincoln Estates Improvement Association; the Ranchitos de Moraga association; the Lost Valley Community Association; Utah Construction Company, and Contra Costa County officials (through Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings).

The Moraga Del Rey, Inland Valley, Ranchitos de Moraga and Lost Valley groups favored the Indian Valley route.

So did the Lincoln Estates group.

PROponents of the state-favored route, in addition to arguing that it would be the cheapest and most direct, declared that selection of this route would leave undisturbed the potential park areas of Redwood Canyon and Indian Valley.

The state engineers pointed out that their tentatively recommended route was one of approximately 4½ miles.

UTAH CONSTRUCTION Company arguments were presented by Frank Keller, vice-president of the company, and Eldridge Lovelace, senior partner in Harland Bartholomew and Associates, planning consultants for the firm and Frank Draeger, an engineer.

The state-favored route would cut through company land. The Utah Construction Company spokesmen argued in favor of the Redwood Canyon route with Indian Valley as a second choice.

Pointing out that the company owns some land in both sections, Keller said that if the state would study further the feasibility of the are based on sound considerations of over-all welfare and long brought out at the hearing.

BOOKER SAID this week that Cummings not only read his letter at the June 21 hearing, but that he also filed it with the State Division of Highways.

Miss Mary A. Smith, assistant clerk of the Board of Supervisors, said she has a copy of the letter in her files.

In discussions on the routes, the state-favored route has been described as "number 4"; the one looping south of Moraga townsite as "number 3"; Indian Valley as "number 2"; Redwood Canyon as "number 1."

IN THE LETTER, dated June 21 and signed by him as chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Cummings stated that the Board of Supervisors, the County Planning Commission, the commission's technical staff, and the Public Works Department had discussed the problems involved in the four routes.

"As chairman of the Board of Supervisors, I will make the recommendation for the county," Cummings said.

The reaction of many groups interested in Contra Costa County and the state highway system that serves it, shows "wide variances" in opinions, "as attested by telephone calls, letters and petitions," the letter continued.

"It goes without saying that the Board of Supervisors would not be able to waive a hearing by the State Highway Commission upon this route."

"However, we wish to emphasize and point out that we feel the studies of the district office of the Division of Highways have been most conscientious and of the highest caliber."

"SOME OF THE points that we considered in deliberations were the highway user and what the final route would mean to him."

"Also, we thought it appropriate and necessary to consider the benefit and effect upon the local area through which the proposed routes traversed, the benefit and effect on a countywide basis, and the benefit and effect on the state highway system, a portion of which will be the Shepherd Canyon Freeway."

"IT IS OUR recommendation that Route 4 not be further considered."

"We feel that, in the best interests of the state, county and local area involved, the route should be adopted from its present terminus to an appropriate common point for Routes 1, 2 and 3."

"Such a procedure would make possible future discussions and conferences on the remaining portion of the route."

"WE FEEL THAT such a recommendation, if approved, would allow for calm, intelligent discussion and a realistic appraisal of the entire situation."

"In closing, we wish to emphasize our sincere appreciation to you, Mr. Booker, and your staff, for your fine cooperation and outstanding efforts in working upon highway problems in Contra Costa County."

Booker commented Wednesday that the recommendation by Cummings "wouldn't solve the problem, except to rule out one line which the engineering staff considers the most feasible."

The extension will be from the present northern end of Charles Hill Road to Tramps View.

Here's Easy Way to Do It

One of the basic points of salesmanship is to develop an affirmative approach and reach as many potential customers as possible.

This attitude, however, was not easy to come by for Mrs. Elliot Hartman, 18 Hidden Valley Road, Lafayette, as she attempted to sell her 1941 Chevrolet coupe.

So she put her advertising problem in the hands and pages of The Sun.

Approval Given For Dog Pound On CCCSD Land

Negotiations to establish a new county dog pound on two acres of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District land near Buchanan Field were given the go-ahead last week by the board of supervisors.

Desmond M. Teeter reported to the board that CCCSD engineer Gerry Horstskotte had informed him that the district directors may be willing to sell the land alongside their sewage treatment plant at a price of about $400 per acre.

Teeter pointed out that this land was a more desirable site for the future pound than the proposed use of county airport land, which could be put to other use.

He added that the CCCSD acreage would be easier to provide with sanitation facilities and utilities.

Dancers Will Whoop-it-up Tonight at Rheem Center

Folk and square dancers on the local scene are limbering up limbs and practicing promenades in preparation for Rheem Center's gala folk and square dance carnival tonight at 8 p.m. at the center in Moraga.

Dancing competition and "just plain fun" are in store at the admission-free festivities which will be held in the "wide open spaces" in the middle of the center on Park Street, which will be blocked off from traffic.

Frank Kerrigan, president of the Rheem Center Merchants Association, the sponsoring organization, has announced that more than 50 Contra Costa and Alameda County square and folk dance groups have been invited to participate in the rustic ball.

Included among the prominent square dance callers expected to be present will be Bob Dewan and Jack Evans.

Among the emcees for the various types of group dances will be Stan Valentine, Ken Peden, Debra Hollingsworth and Bill Sangster.

Guest dancers will be performing a wide variety of dances, both square and interpretive folk styles, led by both the above named callers and by words and background music aired over a public address system from phonograph records.

The Merchants Association has announced that everyone, beginning dancers, experienced dancers and curious spectators are invited to attend and join in the hand-clapping, foot-stomping session.

County Heart Group Plans Big Drive

Plans for the coming months were made last week by the Contra Costa County Heart Association at the June meeting of the Board of Directors.

Delegates who attended the May convention of the Association in Carmel made a report to the group. They included Dr. James F. Embick, Dr. Daniel Simon, Richmond; Dr. Daniel Joseph, and Mrs. Robert Clough, Walnut Creek.

Dr. Embick, president, announced that the Association has withdrawn from the Pittsburg and Antioch United Crusade and that Pittsburg and Antioch this year will participate in the independent County fund raising drive to be staged by the Contra Costa Heart Association.

Dr. Embick, stated, "We feel that our program of research and education can best be financed through an independent fund raising effort in this County."

"It will also avoid confusion among donors for all communities in the county to participate in a single Heart Association drive in February, which is designated as Heart Month."

He reported that committees are now in the process of organization for the 1957 campaign.

Miss Helen Blankenhorn, fund raising consultant from the national office of the American Heart Association, met with members of the campaign committee at a luncheon meeting in Lafayette, Wednesday, to discuss plans.

Dr. Marion Joseph, Walnut Creek, chairman of the committee for cardiac rehabilitation in the home, announced plans for a work, simplification workshop to be held October 6 at Contra Costa Junior College for home economics teachers, nurses and other interested persons.

Lots of Levity Accompanies Realtor's Move

Real estate broker Charles Harvey's contemplated move to Orinda from Lafayette, and association with L. E. Reark, was accompanied by much good-natured kidding and levity, recently.

Wayne Bailey in his weekly newsletter for the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, said:

"ARGUMENTS ADVANCED by the Orinda faction to keep Harvey out of Orinda, and the Lafayette group headed by Bink Binker, who are determined to move Harvey out of Lafayette, have reached an impasse.

"The Orinda spokesman, Doug Knight, argued among much the same lines as those aired before, that Harvey was doing okay in Lafayette and let him stay there.

"A front man for Harvey said, 'Harvey was just as determined to get to Orinda as the P.I.E. and, if necessary, would join forces to seek redress of constitutional rights.'

"WHEN QUESTIONED by this reporter as to the possibility of moving to a location on the outskirts of Pacheco as a compromise, Harvey's reply was 'no comment'."

John F. Baldwin Given Editorial Boost by SF Paper

An editorial "pat on the back" was given U.S. Congressman John Baldwin, Sixth District by Earl C. Behrens, political editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, in a recent edition.

Behrens said that Baldwin has been able to increase appropriations to this district above the sums originally recommended in the President's budget.

He said, "For a freshman member of the House of Representatives, John F. Baldwin Jr., of Martinez has succeeded in getting a hefty slice of public works appropriations made in the current Congress."

"THE PUBLIC WORKS appropriations bill includes $12,200,000 for Monticello dam, known as the Solano project, $1,850,000 for dredging Richmond harbor, and $450,000 for levee revetment and levee setback work along the San Joaquin river and the Stockton deep water channel in eastern Contra Costa delta region.

"The item for the Solano project will provide for the completion of the main dam, a project long contemplated; continued construction of the diversion dam, construction of the main canal on schedule and about $300,000 for planning the proposed irrigation distribution system."

"Six years ago the San Joaquin river levee work was authorized by the Congress. But no funds were ever appropriated to carry out the authorization.

"DURING THE six-year period the levees have been steadily deteriorating and the wave wash of deep-water ships going up the channel to Stockton caused damaging erosion to the sides of the levees.

"During last December's floods and the high water period, the levees were in danger.

"The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has been directed by the House Public Works Committee to make a flood-control survey of the Napa river.

"That stream runs through both Solano county and Napa county, which is in the First Congressional District. Representative Hubert B. Scudder of Sebastopol, who represents Napa county, joined Baldwin in sponsoring the survey resolution.

Therapy Center Forerunner Is Given Award

A former resident of Danville, Mrs. Mary K. Doyle, is this year's recipient of the "civic service award from the Contra Costa County District 13 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and the Mt. Diablo Aerie Number 2575 of Walnut Creek, according to District Chairman Mr. Walter C. Paine.

District 13, which includes Walnut Creek, Martinez, Crockett, Antioch, Pittsburg and Pinole presented a bronze plaque while the Mt. Diablo Aerie awarded its Civic Service Award certificate to Mrs. Doyle from the floor of the Eagles' Annual Convention, at the Stratton-Palmer Hotel in San Francisco, Sunday.

MRS. DOYLE, a registered physical therapist and a graduate of the Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago received the coveted award in recognition of her service to stricken children and adults following the polio epidemic in 1949.

Despite her own grief at the loss of her only child, Smiley Ann Doyle in 1948, Mrs. Doyle decided to provide physical therapy for the afflicted, Paine said.

The Orinda Library Building Fund goal of $125,000 was nearer realization with the Field Group captains reporting their results to Chairman Mrs. Donald Krotz last week.

Assisting Mrs. Krotz in the organization and administration of the concentrated ten-day house-to-house drive were the Mesdames Ed F. Wilford, John Madison and C. V. Scarth of the Orinda Woman's Club, with Mrs. Ed Winters contributing many hours at headquarters.

As a result of their aim to give every resident of Orinda the opportunity to contribute to the first community building, the "Library Ladies" were provided with the most accurate break-down of each campaign area.

This was made possible by records furnished by the Orinda Association, Orinda Chamber of Commerce, postoffice and information compiled by Mrs. Millard Simon from a previous campaign.

Under the field captains, the solicitation load was carried by the approximately 300 volunteers who gave of their time to acquaint their neighbors with the Orinda Library Building Fund campaign.

The following messmates have been campaigning:

Orinda Youngsters Enjoy Summertime 'Rec' Program

Future sportsmen and sports-women had a great time fishing at Berkeley Pier last week, and the fish didn't have a chance when Karen Fersten, Wendy Shuey, Grigg DeWitt, Clint DeWitt and many others set their hooks.

This activity took place under the sponsorship of the Orinda Summer Recreation Program, and over 75 Orinda kids participated.

Rotary Recounts Year's Events, Success at Meet

Nostalgia offset the regular noon luncheon meeting of the Orinda Rotary Wednesday at the Willow Inn as outgoing president Maynard Buehler presided over his last Rotary function.

The new slate of officers, scheduled to take over at the next Rotary meeting July 11 at the Willow Inn, includes Ramsay Underwood, president; Harold Bryant, secretary; and Earl Cappel, treasurer. Directors will include E. L. DeLaveaga, Merle D. Brown, James Kral and Robeson Smith.

Most of Wednesday's meeting was taken up with a resume of the past year's activities, recounted from a club bulletin.

ONE OF THE first Rotary actions taken last fall, it was remembered, when member Herb Hausor organized a Wheel Club (Jr. Rotary) at Miramonte High School.

Activities followed fast and heavy with benefit, civic and social events rounding out the year.

The Rotary, during the course of the year, donated and erected the ORINDA sign over the bus shelter, and recently donated $250 to the Library Building Fund.

CHILDREN AND STUDENTS occupied a great portion of the Rotary schedule of activities. Christmas time found the organization holding its annual Children's Christmas Party at the Orinda Theater. The annual Orinda School Field Day and annual Children's Day were also Rotary contributions to local youth.

Aside from inviting at least one foreign student to each of their meetings, Rotary members supported a foreign student in Orinda through the auspices of the American Field Service and also helped select a local student to study abroad.

THE CLUB ALSO organized Boy Scout Troop 307, donated $100 to the Keep Orinda Clean campaign, gave $20 to the Miramonte football team for jerseys and sponsored Boy Scout Explorer Post 300.

Summarizing the year as very successful, Buehler proceeded to single out Leighton MacGregor, Robeson Smith, Paul Pease, Hauser and Clarence Betz for their special efforts and thanked the entire membership for its cooperation during the year.

Chamber Prexy Denies Political Ties in Ass'n

Contention that the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce was attempting to gain control of the Lafayette Improvement Association has been dismissed and ridiculed by Larry Blakesley, chamber president.

Believing that there were implications made at a June 20 improvement association meeting to the effect that the Chamber of Commerce represented factions attempting to win the contested association offices from the incumbents, Blakesley told the Sun that the "Lafayette Chamber of Commerce is not trying to run the Lafayette Improvement Association."

"We, as a business organization," he continued, "are happy to cooperate with all civic organizations, but do not impose upon any body politics or directives." The Chamber of Commerce is currently attempting to acquire a spokesman on tax assessment for its July 11 meeting.

The chamber, according to Blakesley, is seeking a tax assessment run-down, to find a correlation between increased taxes and the automatic extra taxes imposed by the State Board of Equalization last year.

Summer, accompanied by hot days and beautiful, moonlight nights, bring serious consideration of vacations and activities connected with holidays.

Campers have sprung up around our neighborhood — the home variety ones and if one is foolhardy enough to do a bit of nightwalking, don't be surprised if one falls over a tent or two.

IN RANGE OF HOME
Even the big "uns are getting into the spirit of the season. For instance, the night a certain moon-struck reporter went horseback riding with her daughter and neighbor (who's more used to this sort of thing) and covered many a mile and hour. Surprise! I was able to walk the next day. That's the way to get close to Nature.

Last week, Caroline Thune and mother were guests at the annual picnic of the Walnut Creek Equestrian 4-H Club group. It goes under the title of Pre-Horse-show Potluck. The purpose is not only to enjoy a fine dinner, but to also talk "business."

The business being the 5th Annual Junior Horse Show and rodeo, scheduled for June 30 and July 1, to be held at the Concord Trail Ride Association Horse Show Grounds, Bissio Lane, Concord.

The Equestrian 4-H group is interesting in that it includes 84 members, all of whom are required to own their own horses.

Community leader is Mrs. Eileen Lockhart, assistant leaders, Gene Lockhart and Doris Creager. Headquarters, the Lockhart home. Visitor at the D. F. E. Cole home, 312 Rheem Boulevard, this past week was Donna's father, L. E. Nelson from Logan, Utah. He was here as delegate to the Kiwanis International Convention in San Francisco.

Before his return to Utah on Friday, he was able to devote a couple of days visiting with Donna and family at her home in Moraga.

Mrs. Hilda Franklin, with her two sons Roger and Donnie and two houseguests Mrs. Clara Franklin and Mrs. Meta Behm-falk, returned Sunday after spending four days in Pacific Grove (between Monterey and Carmel). During their stay, they "did" Carmel and a lot of rock cod fishing, the weather being perfect for such activities.

They were joined over the week end by Bing Franklin, who then accompanied them back to our Fair Land.

PARTY! WHO CARES WHY
On Tuesday, Mrs. Jo Rogers entertained at lunch. It looked more like a birthday party, as there were 17 children present, but it was just a friendly get-together.

Those attending were Mrs. Dee Davis, Mrs. Donna Cole, Mrs. Sarah Glasky and Mrs. Vivian Lund. Mrs. Jerry Tarpley was unable to attend, but her four children did.

According to Jo, it all went surprisingly well; the children entertained themselves plus having watermelon to eat.

At the final Moraga Mother's Club meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Mardel Carr, last year's officers stepped down and handed over the floor to the new officers.

Retiring officers were: president, Parlee Sanders; vice-president, Elaine Read; secretary, Eva Thune, and treasurer, Ruby Pagliaro. Incoming are: president, Donna Cole; vice-president, Betty Parker; recording secretary, Dee Davis; corresponding secretary, Mardel Carr, and treasurer, Jo Rogers.

President Donna Cole took over to close the meeting, after which in celebration of the closing of another school year, special refreshments were served during a longer-than-usual social hour.

A water ballet scheduled for Sunday will be presented at the Carroll Ranch pool. Mr. Mancini, new owner of the Ranch, is sponsoring the show for the entertainment of members of his club.

WATER SPRITES

The Maids, a water ballet troupe of the Kallunke Swim School, is sponsored by the Oakland Moose Club. Coach and trainer is Betty Brandelin, while girls participating are: Marcia Bliet, Lorin Cortez, Lynn Kristie, Sharon Dean, Nancy Millet, Susan Pearce, Gayle St. John, Jeanne Kranskopf, Sylvia Hernandez and Deanne Beach.

Diving specialist Al Muha, well-known trick and comic diver, will put on an exhibition of serious and trick diving.

Accompanying the water ballet will be a fashion show. Clothing will be furnished by Moraga Casuals, located in the Patio Shops, Rheem Center.

With Mrs. Mary Dorr, commenting, models will display fashions for adults, teen-agers and children. Participating will be Mrs. Layton De Maeyer, Mrs. Jack Clark, Mrs. Bill McElhinney, Mrs. W. E. Arends, Mrs. Richard Myer and Mrs. Toby Sedka.

In the teen-age class will be Marty De Meyer, Billie Jean Clark, Heidi Devin and Judy Myer.

Children will be Cindy McElhinney, 3, Judy Rolley, 7, and Priscilla Devin, 11.

It's Debut for Rotary Tomorrow!

Tomorrow night at the Veterans Memorial Building, Lafayette, an unusual ceremony will be enacted as the Lafayette Rotarians "debunk" President Elwyn Gerow. The debunking ceremony accompanying the surrender of the reins of authority by a retiring Rotary president is unique in American club history, according to Neill Cornwall, Lafayette Rotary publicity chairman.

"During his term of office a Rotary president is a despot—sometimes benevolent—with the unbridled power of life and death over the members' pocketbooks. (But the gnawing knowledge of the ignominious end which daily becomes closer is a continuous reminder that his power and grandeur are only a cloak loaned to him by the membership, and that he is not the possessor of a vested interest in an inherent right," Cornwall explains.

CORNWALL humorously describes the schedule for tomorrow night's program as follows:

"During the Friendship Hour— from 6 to 7—the stage will be set and various indignities will be concocted to heap on the head of the Mighty who is about to fall. Further trials and tribulations will be perfected as from 7 to 8 thick barbecued steaks, corn on the cob, salad, coffee and dessert are absorbed by the sadistic membership.

"The only consolation for the good doctor, as he reviews his 'crimes' of the past year, is his knowledge that even the most despicable of his subjects, blissful in the happy anticipation of the punishment which they will soon mete out to him, can absorb unlimited quantities of food and suffer no ill effects.

"FINALLY, the dramatic hour arrives; Chairman Ed Rodman calls forward his chief torturer, Fred Wagner, who leads the victim onward to the sacrificial rites. Cold stares and gleeful laughter greet his trembling progress. No involuntary move to help animates his outgoing synoptic officers—Vice-President Stan White, Secretary Jack Pedder and Treasurer Bill McGreggor.

"Following the debunking ceremony, the outgoing president is proud that he has passed the ordeal and is firmly convinced that he belongs to the finest organization in the world.

"Incoming President Dr. Ralph Ligon, unable to face this preview of his own sad end, cannot attend; but Treasurer McGreggor and Secretary Paul Bayard, officers of his own regime, safe in their status as advisors for their actions, will attend and bask happily in the warm sunshine of the esteem of their fellowmen."

Lion Year Ends With Installation Of New Officers

Lafayette Lions concluded their year Tuesday night at El Nido as International Counsellor Jack Merchant gave the installation speech that seated the slate of officers for the next year.

Honored and installed as Lion officers were:

President, Bert Trullson; 1st vice-president, Stan Knight; 2nd vice-president, Don Tice; 3rd vice-president, Danny Dye Jr.; secretary-treasurer, Loy Repet; tall-talker, Bob Giddard; Liontamer, Norman Cloutier; directors, John Maddux, Al Medau, Bill Shannon and Ted Stein.

Several Lions headed for Pittsburg last Saturday as volunteer helpers on the Diabolo Blind Center project. Coincidentally, most of the volunteers were also among those who received pins for 100 per cent meeting attendance at Tuesday's meeting.

The Lion board of directors has voted another $300 to the Lafayette Community Center from the proceeds of the recent light bulb sale. This boosted total Lion donations to the center to $1017.23.

Program chairman Ray Dittmeyer arranged to have news commentator John K. Chapel speak to the membership at a recent meeting.

Chapel spoke on world affairs and the change in tactics of the Soviet Union.

Swimmers Chime in On 'Happy Birthday'

Happy Birthday to Vicky Tessman was sung to the tune of a big splash swimming party at her home on Canon Drive recently.

Fancy party snacks were served on the patio to guests Marjorie Holliage, Nancy Bierns, Sharlene Mossotto, Diane Fastabend, Linda Van Sickle, Ginger Katsdevin, Judy Gendrot and Bonnie Brooks.

'Sitters' Co-op Gets Nationwide Publicity in Mag

Orinda mothers, organized in baby-sitting co-operatives, are receiving national prominence and publicity in the July issue of the Ladies' Home Journal.

The Journal article, entitled More Free Time for Mothers, cites the Orinda co-ops as some of the successful organizations throughout the nation which are helping mothers to solve their baby-sitting problems.

It mentions Mrs. Lois Glascock and Mrs. George Kozak as two "charter members" of the organizations who are finding more time to devote to their personal interests through the rotational sitting program.

According to the article, the mothers have stated that "Our baby-sitting co-op is an answer to at least 50 cent of our problems."

'Orinda Has 3 Picks'.. Nielsen

Mel Nielsen, candidate for supervisor of the Second District, has suggested that the people of Orinda can go one of three ways in solving the problems of expansion and development.

The choices are, says Nielsen, 1) Status quo. 2) Set up a Special Services District. 3) Incorporation.

The candidate claimed that he had reviewed the Orinda Association's Orinda Incorporation Survey and agrees that the above choices, stated in the survey, are Orinda's alternatives.

He went on to compliment the association on the survey, and vowed to back the people's choice.

White Elected Society Director

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford White, 1751 Reliez Valley Road, have recently returned from Pasadena in Southern California where White was a delegate to the three-day annual convention of the Society of California Accountants.

At the convention White was elected a District Director of the society, which makes him a member of the Board of Directors. White attended as a representative of the Diabolo Chapter of the society, of which he is past president. He is a public accountant in Lafayette.

According to White, the convention included presentations of technical accounting lectures by the Committee on Continuing Education, reports by each State Committee and the election of officers for the coming year.

Troop No. 224 Ready for Sierra Hike

Off early tomorrow for fourteen days of camping, hiking and fishing in the High Sierra wilderness area of Inyon National Forest will be 25 Lafayette boys, all members of Boy Scout Troop 224.

Members of this local troop have been preparing for this vacation trip into the mountains during the past several weeks. This is the group's third annual Sierra trek during the three years it has held a troop charter.

Preparations have included overnight camping on Mt. Diablo and at other nearby campgrounds, lessons in outdoor cooking, instruction in swimming, and nature study.

Their most recent experience in nature study was acquired on June 17 when members of the troop and their leaders were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hink on Springhill Road. Mrs. Hink, an expert on reptiles, instructed the scouts on the value of snakes and how to recognize various species.

This Sierra trek of Troop 224 has been planned for the group by Dale Black, a Sierra Club member and an experienced mountaineer. Also serving as leaders will be Joe Corse and Don Hoskins, both with many Sierra hikes to their credit. Other adults who will accompany the boys will include Orville Sammann, Paul Dreyer and Doug Penneck.

Tomorrow night, scouts and their parents who have transported them to the eastern slope of the Sierra will camp at Rock Creek Lake off Highway 365. On Sunday morning the hikers will head up Little Lakes Valley to Mono Pass and a trip across the crest of the Sierra at an elevation of 12,643 feet.

This is the second year that Troop 224 will have the experience of crossing the Sierra at 12,000 feet or more.

On July 4 the troop will start down through the area known as the Mono Recesses.

The trip has been planned to allow the hikers a chance to explore the four recesses that lead into wilderness areas not usually visited in this primitive region of the mountain range.

The trek will take the scouts across the Muir Trail again this year. They will pass the Vermilion Cliffs and on July 14 will come down Vermillion Valley to meet parents at Mono Hot Springs east of Fresno.

Much of the scouts' food will be dehydrated and carried on the boys' back throughout the hike, although on July 7 a pack train of 5 mules will carry in fresh supplies, meeting the hikers at the Third Recess.

One group of the scouts will carry Geiger Counters with them on the hike in order to search for radio-active materials. The Geiger Counters have been made by the boys themselves as a result of the proposed merit badge in "Nucleonics" which the troop planned and displayed at the Meridian District Exposition last February.

The lure and the cure

The sight that stirs the scouting souls of us Stay-at-Homers is a car loaded down w/kids and camp equipment stopping to "fill 'er up" for the first leg of that big trip to the Great Outdoors!

The camp needs have been checked and dbl. checked for days before being fitted into and around the family wagon like pieces in a jigsaw puzzle. The first thing someone will need or circumstances require will, of course, be arrival at the campsite, the family will discover that one of the chief necessities of making camp life comfortable, the coffee pot or Coleman stove, was forgotten and left sitting at the garage door.

Mother, settling down to enjoy the scenery, will suddenly start fretting as to whether she turned off the iron OR the refrigerator OR the toaster after that hurried five a.m. leavetaking. Sis will sulk for awhile having forgot to pack her curlers and bobby pins or her bathing suit and Junior, who has more gear along than the rest of the family put together, will be lost in mountain-man reverie of b'ars and buffalos.

Last, but not least, that most important person embarking on his 2 wks. with pay, has lit up his pipe, checked the roadmaps w/his usual aplomb, is all set for the Call Of The Wild, but before the sun is overhead, will undoubtedly have to cope w/an overheated engine, a flat first tire!

It's Back to Nature and Oh, that scenery! But OH, the inconveniences! Two weeks later, temporarily cured of camping, the family will heartily agree, There's NO PLACE LIKE HOME! And especially in Orinda!

RUSTIC-ATIONEERS... The Robert Glasers, w/Gary and Ronnie, in the redwoods at their Russian River place... Len and Marge Roth and Mark who traversed w/tent through Yosemite and Tuolumne Meadows couldn't quite get used to being awakened by bears... The Al Cloughs w/Alton and Bryan, fished up Sonora way last wknd... The Bill Thurstons are picking a pretty spot at Mt. Lassen with Carol, John and Tom along.

Home from a week at Mt. Hermon in the Santa Cruz Mts... Linda Lancioni, Myrre Decker, Ann Frederickson, Nancy Barrows, Lynn Thompson.

The Bill Brooks have moved to their Inverness house for the summer and George and Margaret Kozak and children are also vacationing there... Marion and Bob Brown and children are wending their way through the Canadian countryside and the Rands, Jack and Marion, are coast-to-coasting with a cross-country drive to Pennsylvania.

The Elbert Waynes spent last wknd. at the famous Apple Valley Inn and took in Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm too, as did the John Glascocks with their daughters who also enjoyed a bus tour of the 206-acre San Diego Zoo. The Glascocks stayed in Fullerton w/former Orindans, the Randy Connors, into whose former home the Dana Odums have just recently moved.

It happens every time

When Mary Anne Ruedrick of LaCuesta accompanied her dad Walter Ruedrick to Calaveras Co. last wknd., Mrs. R.'s last word of maternal warning was "Watch out for rattlesnakes!" Mr. R. assured Lucille he hadn't seen a rattler on their particular gold-rush ground for some seven years.

Well, eight-yr. old Mary Anne missed stepping on one by a step and a half which Mr. R. having made his mark, measured later at fifty-two inches. They couldn't keep the story from mother, who, before fainting, said "I told you so!"

TAMOE-TREKKERS... The Bud Kochers staying at Farley House... The Ear Viers family... The Robert Walkers w/Susie and Johnny, who left for their family cabin the day after school was out! The Norman Pressleys are here too w/Scotty and Mike and the Bob Johnsons will take their sons up for a Fourth holiday... Michael and Barbara Ferrone and Philip and Gloria Muscheid, both vacationing there w/their families, met someplace along Tahoe's shoreline last Saturday nite for a joint wedding anniversary party.

HOUSEGUESTS... Lots of old friends dropping in at Hillcrest Drive to see Millie McQuillen and Marge Hoffman, here from Texas and Florida respectively, for a summer stay w/their sister and her husband, the Gene Hoppers and their mother, Mrs. Edna Twisselman... Marguerite and George Jackson among those stopping in for a greeting.

The Jerry Cullens are entertaining the Ken Hardings from Kennel-wick, Washington, and the Howard Youngs have as their guest Helen's sister Mrs. Frank Harrison from Lancaster, Calif... Howard, by the way, was among those on the Sonoma Co. Trail Blazers recent seventh saddle trip.

The Gordon Ainsworth's children, Jay and Adeline, are visiting w/their maternal grandparents in Florida while their mother, (Harriet) does two weeks w/the WAVES on reserve duty, after which she'll join the family for some vacation fun.

TIP FOR THE NIGHT BEFORE THE FOURTH... For just a fiver for a twosome, you'll have a chuck-wagon dinner, the fun of a hayride, entertainment, dancing, and swimming in the brand new pool at Buckeye Ranch, Lafayette... This, a wonderful way to celebrate the fourth for stay-at-homes, is the first big fund-raising event by the Orinda Lighthouse Auxiliary to provide camperships for blind children to Enchanted Hills Camp... For tickets at $5 per couple, call Evie Hopper at CL 4-5725, and pronto!

Sailing from N.Y. last Monday were Smed Ambler, son of the Louis Amblers and Allen Shapiro, son of the Marshall Shapiros, off to Europe as Amer. Field Serv. exchange students... Smed visited earlier w/relatives and his grandmother in Cincinnati, Ohio and a large family gathering saw him off at the ship from N. Y. church for their annual June luncheon, a beautiful production, chaired by Mrs. Ambler.

MONTHLY MEDALLIONS... to the ladies of the community maned by petite Ada Frances Dawson, who did a giant-sized job... to the Library Lassies, who worked w/Chrmn. Verla Krotz, on the very successful house-to-house canvass for the Orinda Library Campaign... to Hills Bros. Exec., Robert Boyle, whose company donated the coffee for the Campaign's kick-off meeting and who himself personally brewed the perfect pot, 300 cups of it, which drew loads of compliments from the coffee-loving library ladies, quite a kudo in this coffee-saturated town!

MONTHLY SCALLIONS... to the litterbugs who apparently are on vacation from keeping Orinda Clean! Be a popsicle-paper-pick-upper, PLEASE!!

Motorists Get New Road Today

A pleasant surprise is in for motorists driving along Pleasant Hill Road between Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Reliez Valley Road today, announces Basil Andrews, county traffic engineer.

Under construction for several weeks, a new section of the road in this area has been completed, and traffic will be switched to the new portion while construction continues on the old.

Comedy and Arts Spark Luncheon

Annual spring luncheon of the Community Church was held recently at the church as members and guests thronged to Fellowship Hall for an afternoon of entertainment.

Decorations commenced on the steps, where an awning of red and white stripes shaded the entrance to the scenes of Venice which were composed of big rustic appearing gilded bells hanging from the ceiling, gondola poles, garlands of vivid flowers, murals of canals and Venetian skylines and table centerpieces of miniature gondolas loaded with flowers and manned by tiny gondoliers.

The Dramateurs presented one of their most popular comedy plays in the middle of the hall, on the courtyard lawn pupils of Julie Hesse danced and a string trio composed of Mrs. T. J. Faray, Mrs. A. C. Flemer and Mrs. S. M. Hudd, entertained at the piano, violin and cello.

During the luncheon Mrs. Evangeline Honnold played the part of the "Wandering Minstrel" as she mingled with the guests playing her violin.

Polio Time Now... Shot Time Too!

We are now entering "polio season" and although we appear to be having little incidence of the crippling disease this year, it is well to be aware that it is always lurking in the background.

And now it is no longer a "hopeless situation," where you can do nothing but sit, wait, and hope that the disease won't find you or one of your children.

There is positive action you can take... and that action is by inoculation!

Salk Polio Vaccine has been demonstrated to be effective and it is not harmful to the recipient... it could save your life, or the lives of your children.

You should have no difficulty getting these shots for your children, especially. The county is providing clinics where free immunization is provided for all children through 15 years, and pregnant women.

Appointments can be made for the clinics by writing to the County Health Department, P.O. Box 871, Martinez, including the name and address of the parent, name and birth date of each child, and date of any previous polio injection.

Of course, your private physician can also provide immunization for your family, and the cost is not prohibitive... especially when you consider that a life may hang in the balance.

County Health Officer Dr. H. L. Blum commented, "Children should be vaccinated against polio as soon as possible so they may have protection for the late summer and fall.

"Comparison of groups of children who received the vaccine with groups of the same age who did not have vaccine has shown that even one injection prevents half the cases of paralytic polio, while two injections prevent over three fourths of the cases.

"The polio vaccine is now as safe as any vaccine now in use for smallpox, tetanus, whooping cough or any others administered every year to countless children..."

Since January the County Health Department has administered 10,700 shots. Is your family included?

Remember, the summer is wearing on, and late summer and fall are the most likely times to contract polio.

So take action now, while your family is healthy. Don't procrastinate. It's not pleasant to say "I'm sorry... I should have taken action sooner."

Annual Junior Horse Show To Be Held This Weekend

Heading the show will be the brilliant riding of Virgil Allen and his Thunderbird Jumpers from Denver. Allen rides Roman style, standing on the back of his two jumpers, Mick and Mack, over obstacles placed around the show ring. He will be featured each day at 3 o'clock.

CLAUDE ODUM of Fort Worth will assist Allen in the ring and will act as a human barricade for Allen's mare, Squaw, to jump over.

A fine team is expected from Salinas to compete in the western events, and Mills College Riding Stables of Oakland will have a group of jumpers in the English classes.

THOSE COMPETING from this area will include:

From Lafayette—Martin Mossman, Christine Gameau, Carol Maloyan, Susan Ellis, Jennie Butler, Jean and Val Pullman, Allison Plant, Syble Balbini, Susan Flint.

From Walnut Creek—Steve Turner, Gary Toombs, Kristin Kraemer, Marilyn Reed, Tony Snow, Duane Lockhart, Judy and Johnny Bird, Gail Henderson, Carol and Barbara West, Pat McSorley, Barbara Foley, Charlotte Mauss, Wayne Figroid.

From Pleasant Hill—Jerry Jackson.

From Orinda—Donald and Valerie Silva, at Stevens, Julie Edelin, Linda Blumer, Lucy Hupp.

From Moraga—Carol Thune.

A barbecue and dance is being planned for the visitors tomorrow night at the Trail Ride grounds, and the music is being furnished by the Modernaires.

JUDGES for the show include: Western—George Mills, Salinas; hunt seat—Hans Mueller, Los Gatos; saddle seat—Marlene Goodhue, San Mateo; rodeo—Bob Baker, Clayton.

Arena director is Gene Lockhart; ring steward, Irving Kraemer; arena steward, Joe Clark; announcers, George Cardinet and John Owens; entry clerk, Eileen Lockhart; photographers, Frank Olsen and Jim Cryderman.

A grand total of 442,798,265 vehicles has passed over the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge as of March 31, 1956, reports the National Automobile Club.

What They Say...

What's Best For the Area?

Freeways, Rapid Transit systems, hospitals, schools and a hundred other projects have been launched or suggested in recent years to help develop and improve the local community.

Improvement associations have sprung up in every corner of the area in an effort to provide the most favorable living and working conditions possible for the residents in one of the fastest-growing communities in the U.S.A.

But, as with most area-wide movements, the drive toward community improvement has resulted in nearly as many diversified and opposing viewpoints on what's best for the people as there are groups to foster them.

OPINIONS ON WHAT should be done come from every source, but when your inquiring reporter asked, "What major improvement or development do you think this area needs most?" his source was the faction most directly concerned, individuals of the community.

It was felt very strongly by some that transportation was becoming the most serious local problem, and that improvement should start there.

M. G. Horgan, 30 Glorietta Court, Orinda, was in agreement with this view.

"WE MAINLY NEED an adequate highway system and better transportation," he stated. Although not a regular commuter, tied up every day by the snailpace of the autos during the rush hours, Horgan believed that area growth is being retarded because of a lack of an adequate system.

Another local resident who felt the pressing need for a better highway system was Mrs. Eric MacDonald, 3564 Brook Street, Lafayette. But her reasons were a little more personal.

"As far as I'm concerned," she commented, "the major improvement will be the freeway, because Brook Street seems to be getting all the traffic as things stand now."

NO SMALL REASON for her concern are her three pre-school age children.

Mrs. J. A. Mendenhall, 1009 Dyer Drive, Lafayette, told us that she wasn't too familiar with the local problems as she is a new resident here.

"But," she added, "although I don't have any boys, it seems to me there is a real need for some boys' facilities."

The proposed and strived-for Youth Center in Lafayette would be a wonderful thing, she felt.

"Good, reasonable water!" was the reply of D. H. Tramplesure of 861 Jeffry Drive, Pleasant Hill.

He elaborated, saying that an anticipated increase in water rates in Pleasant Hill is "not due" the applicants, California Water Service.

The water problem is here, and also the need for easing transportation in Walnut Creek and the central county—but another need is for more recreational facilities in Pleasant Hill, according to Lt. Col. (Ret.) L. D. Crain of 2084 Ramona Drive, Pleasant Hill.

"MY SON, JAY, is active enough where he hasn't any problem finding things to do, but there is still plenty of room for youth areas. The new pools are a big step."

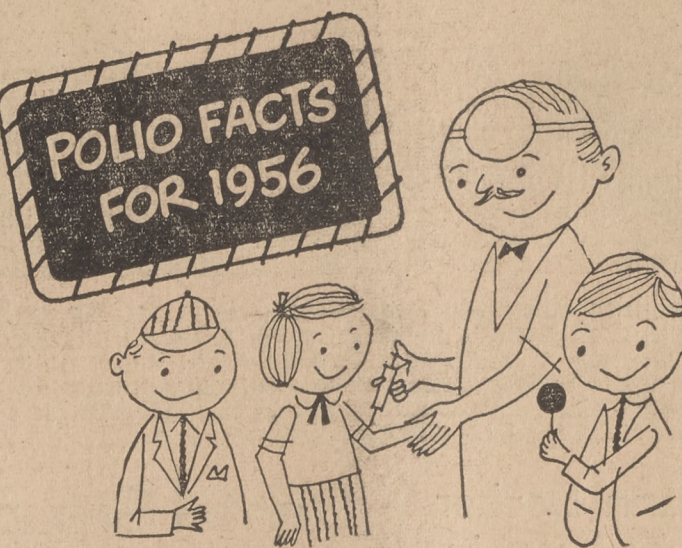

The Crains also have a daughter, Jacqueline, 20.

"What we need most right now is air conditioning—outside that is," exclaimed Mrs. R. M. Heighway of 2973 Bonnie Lane, Walnut Creek.

19 Year-Olds Now Eligible For Anti-Polio Vaccine

The priority group for polio vaccine in California has now been extended to include young people through the age of 19 years," Dr. Beryl Graham, assistant health officer, Contra Costa County, said today.

Until now, only children under 15 years of age, and pregnant women, were eligible for polio vaccination.

BECAUSE THE vaccine has become more plentiful, especially in commercial supplies available to private physicians, the protection is now extended to older children.

From the beginning of the vaccine program in April, last year, through June 2, a total of 47,626 injections of polio vaccine have been given in Contra Costa County.

This figure includes 17,279 injections given in the schools by volunteer physicians under the N.F.P. program, 18,651 injections given by physicians in their offices, and 11,696 given in Health Department Clinics.

The estimated population in the county under the age of 15 years is 97,222. Of these, 29.4% have received one injection, 18.1% have received two injections, and 1.5% have also had a booster injection, which is not given until at least 7 months after the original series of two inoculations.

There are thus many of the younger children who have not yet had the benefit of the protection against paralytic polio given by the vaccine, said Graham.

Parents of these children, as well as the older children now eligible should consult their physicians regarding immunization against polio.

THOSE WHO WILL have difficulty in obtaining private care may have their children immunized at a Health Department Clinic, by writing to the Health Department at P. O. Box 871, Martinez, and requesting an appointment.

Letters to The Editor

ABOUT THE QUARRY

Dear Editor:

A few loquacious people in Orinda are again attempting to stir up a tempest in a teapot. This time, for reasons apparently of their own, they wish to oppose a quarry permit.

These people, who are working so hard to get us aroused, do not even live in the vicinity of the proposed quarry. I do, and before I start opposing—just to be opposing—I want to know some of the facts and not be swayed by a few glib generalities.

Is it not probable this quarry, located as it is far back in the hills, close to the proposed freeway routes, and having a direct access road to the proposed freeway, would prevent gravel trucks from going down our highways and byways to bring the necessary rock to the proposed freeway?

A freeway needs rock, and they are going to get it somewhere—if not from this proposed quarry, located next to it, then from others which would necessitate gravel trucks roaring through Orinda's streets. Mr. McCosker, who is asking for the permit, has stated he will insist on a restriction in the permit preventing any access roads on the Orinda side of the quarry.

The type of quarry proposed does not operate by blasting. The top layer of rock is bulldozed off. It is then pushed down the back of the hill on the opposite side of Orinda into a rock crusher which is no larger than my living room. (Even without a quarry permit I believe no one could prevent Mr. McCosker from bulldozing off some of his land if he wished to do so.)

A quarry of this type is operated by Mr. McCosker near Mountain Boulevard. Since the quarry has been operating, many beautiful homes have been built no more than a block away from it.

Utah Construction Company is also soon going to be needing lots of rock. Would it not be better to get it from a quarry located where trucks could go down back-roads in the hills where no one lives rather than have them roaring down our Mountain Highway or down the proposed Kaiser-quarry cut-off road through Lost Valley and Moraga del Rey?

Before we start opposing we had better get the facts, or we might be opposing something that would benefit us.

Name withheld on request.

Dear Editor:

I should like to express my appreciation, along with that of our Contra Costa Advisory Board and corps of volunteer workers, for the cooperation extended by The Sun in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda to Guide Dogs For The Blind during our recent fund raising campaign.

Our workers depend heavily on your support in acquainting the public with our program, and we are extremely grateful for the coverage you gave us.

We are gaining new memberships each year in Contra Costa County, and we consider that The Sun plays a vital part in helping us to rehabilitate the blind through the use of a Guide Dog.

Builders Hear Registrar, State License Board

Members of the Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange heard Ed W. Ford, registrar of the California State Contractors License Board speak at their final summer dinner meeting held in Lafayette last week.

Other guest speakers were Fred H. Brumm, supervising investigator, and William Bepler, local investigator, also of the State License Board.

Ford urged coordination among contractor associations in delineating scope of licensed building categories.

Noting that among Builders Exchange members present more than a score of general and subcontractor organizations were represented, he said it was an opportune moment to emphasize the necessity of "give and take" among building groups, in helping the state license board define scope of license use, when such help is needed.

He noted also growing concern among contractors in California over instances where licensed contractors going bankrupt are able to turn around and set up in business again without penalty.

Several states, he said, now have license laws prohibiting a bankrupt principal from re-establishing himself in business until one year from the date of bankruptcy has elapsed. This was done by withholding license without which a contractor cannot operate.

Don't throw trash from your car. It is now against the law to be a litterbug. Keep roads clean.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

You are hereby warned!

In the past few days I have had conversation with officials of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association. They find themselves in a dilemma similar to that which The Sun staff is in. (Awkward sentence, eh?)

We are enthusiastically in favor of rapid transit for Contra Costa County and the Bay Area. In general, we endorse the findings of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Council, which covers 9 counties.

Meanwhile, before the over-all plan can even start to roll, we face an immediate decision. As reported in past editions of The Sun, the East Bay Transit District Organization Committee is calling for the formation of an East Bay Transit District.

You are in it now...

Maps of the proposed district have been drawn and they include most of Central Contra Costa County, as well as Alameda County and the Richmond area. Sixteen city councils, including Walnut Creek, Concord and Martinez, are being asked to endorse the resolution for the formation of this district.

If a majority of cities approve, then the Alameda County Board of Supervisors (because it is the larger county) will call an election. A simple majority of the vote would be sufficient to form the district. This measure will probably be on the November 6 ballot.

Are we in Central Contra Costa County for or against it? Both The Sun staff and the commuters officials have been trying to find out the facts. We ran a comprehensive story and an editorial on the subject last week but we still can't arrive at the basic issue.

Good idea for them?

The question: "Is it good for Central Contra Costa County?"

Certainly, we will not argue that it is a good idea for Alameda County-Richmond. They went to the state legislature which passed a specific law permitting formation of a transit district. The reason, of course, is to prevent another long, damaging strike of the Key System which caused so much chaos in East Bay cities. Several times these cities got caught between Key System and the union and nothing could be done about it. With a transit district, East Bay cities could buy out Key System or establish their own transit system.

This is no secret. It is the avowed and publicized purpose of the formation of the district. And it may be sound—for them.

Two men from our area (Don Doyle and Ed Larmer) attended some of their meetings and perhaps suggested that Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Concord, Martinez might be or would be interested. When the map of the proposed district was drawn, our area was included.

What about us?

Oakland Deputy City Attorney Robert Nisbet, a spokesman for the East Bay Committee, told The Sun last week, "It would be my thought that some part of the plan would have to provide service for Contra Costa County. It would have to take the place of and improve the local service now offered by Greyhound."

He indicated that if the plan is approved at an election in November, the board would be able to come up with a detailed plan in the latter part of next year."

At the moment, it is my opinion that:
1. This proposal does not sound advantageous to us.
2. We would be paying taxes to solve an East Bay problem.

3. An efficient rapid transit system would not or could not be economically furnished to this area by the proposed district.

All the facts must be gathered and studied and then city councils, community improvement associations, highway, commuter and other organizations must take action.

Speak up, people.

If we do not want to become a part of the district, we had better say so right now. Otherwise we'll be in the proposed district and our votes in November are too few to count, compared to the East Bay.

Incidentally, I have heard there is some provision for areas to ask exclusion from the district and we are now looking for this information.

But be warned right now. Too often in the past, people have screamed after a district has been formed, "We didn't know about it!"

Well, we know now. It is your problem. You will pay taxes. You will reap the advantages—or disadvantages.

Girl Scouts Get Ready for Sierra Woodlands

On July 12, one hundred girls from this area will be leaving by bus for Sierra Woodlands, the established camp for Girl Scouts of this district.

The camp is located in the Gold Lake recreation area of Tahoe National Forest on Highway 49, about 12 miles from Sierra City and a little over 200 miles from here.

The camp has an elevation of 6000 feet, is dotted with lakes and has an abundance of trees and wild flowers.

SIERRA WOODLANDS has three sessions of two weeks each—sessions beginning on July 12, July 27 and August 10, each session accommodating 100 girls. The girls are divided into five units of 20 girls each, each unit in turn being divided into nests of two girls each.

The girls sleep in bed rolls or sleeping bags under the stars, with each unit having a tent large enough to accommodate the girls in case of rain.

ELSID BUCHWALD is camp director; Nancy Ewing, assistant camp director.

There are also four counselors for each unit, a unit leader, assistant unit leader, junior counselor and Girl Scout mother.

All except the Girl Scout mother are employed for a seven-week period, the mothers serving a two-week period.

THE CAMP ALSO has a dietitian, head cook, assistant cook, nature specialist, waterfront director and handyman, and a person in charge of the trading post, where the girls may purchase such forgotten articles as toothbrushes, stationery and film.

The camp has a fully equipped infirmary with a registered nurse and a doctor on call.

THREE WELL PLANNED meals are served to the girls each day, and their program includes swimming, hiking, fishing, nature crafts and singing.

At times the girls enjoy outdoor cookouts, which they prepare themselves under supervision.

There are unit campfires or a large campfire for all the girls each night.

All in all, the two weeks at camp are an experience which each girl treasures and hopes to repeat the next year.

A similar position, with the addition of middle education, will be filled by William C. Wilson, a teacher at Ygnacio Valley School for the past two years.

He was trained at teacher colleges in the Pacific Northwest and at Colorado State College and taught in Oregon and Idaho before coming to California.

Four members of the present staff have resigned—Mrs. Josephine Rea and Mrs. Irene Spencer to retire from service, Mrs. Ellen McGill to serve as supervisor in the Petaluma schools and JuDean Stetvold to take a position elsewhere.

The latter has been with the department for a year, Mrs. McGill for three years, Mrs. Spencer for 10 years and Mrs. Rea for nearly 20.

More Benefits For Disabled Vets Requested

Increased benefits for disabled veterans and location of a veterans hospital in the Concord area were called for by Chaplain John Lehr, Mt. Diablo Disabled American Veterans, in a recent letter to U. S. Congressman John Baldwin, Sixth District.

Lehr said, "As a member of the Disabled American Veterans, I am very much interested in the passage of HR 11,310 bill, which is now before the U. S. Congress."

"THIS BILL contains many favorable provisions which will correct certain inequities which now exist insofar as disabled veterans are concerned. For example, it will enable a disabled veteran to secure an increase in his pension and hospitalization."

"This is much needed in view of the continually mounting cost of living."

"It is my understanding that a new veterans hospital is to be constructed in the East Bay area sometime in the immediate future."

"I PERSONALLY feel that there are several adequate sites for such a hospital in the Concord area. Moreover, were this hospital to be built in the Concord area, it would be more centrally located and handy for all veterans in the East Bay area."

"Anything that you may do in the interests of both of these provisions would be greatly appreciated by the many disabled veterans and myself. Sincerely."

Pitching Sparkles in Softball Play

Sand and Gravel Scores Two Wins In Third Round

The third round of softball league play got under way on Wednesday, June 20, when Contra Costa Sand and Gravel dropped Serpa Pontiac-Buick in a pitchers' battle, 2-0.

Will Beuchel, on the mound for the winners, threw a two-hitter in notching the shut-out win. One of the safe blows was a single by Dick Anselmo in the first, while the second hit was a double in the fifth by Orville White.

CONTRA COSTA SAND and Gravel had but three hits in winning, scoring in the first when Bob Plaut lead off with a single, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a sacrifice bunt. Run number two scored when Ed Madeiro, as lead-off batter in the sixth tripled and came in to home on a fielder's choice.

Stu McColluch and Lidio Angella each hit singles to round out the hitting for the winners.

Last Friday Rheem Center took a nose dive when the Sand and Gravelers rapped them 4-2. Contra Costa got a 3-0 lead in the first two frames and stayed out in front to notch the win.

Jack Ogden went the first two frames on the mound for the losers and was charged with the defeat. Ed Bill took over in the third, "Goose" Will Gausman received credit for the win as he went the route.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S action at the Walnut Creek Municipal Park found Kings putting Contra Costa Sand and Gravel on the losing side of the ledger, 5-2, with "Goose" Gausman giving up nine hits in losing, while Ed Vick gave up six safes for the victors.

Kings had a good start as they scored a pair of runs on three hits in the opening frame.

Lyle Palmer and Ed Vick lead off with singles and both scored as Richard Gordon doubled, hitting in the number four spot. Palmer and Vick got into the scoring act again in the third when Palmer singled and tallied on Vick's triple. Gene Bell then singled to score. Vick. The final score for the winners came when Gordon homered in the fifth.

CONTRA COSTA scored lone runs in the fourth and fifth, but were held well in check as they were retired in order in the sixth and seventh frames.

Palmer, Vick and Gordon were the leading men with the stick, each getting two for three. Palmer had a pair of singles, Vick a triple and single, while Gordon was the strong man of the act as he tapped out a double and a homer.

Orinda Junior Baseball Starts

Orinda's Junior Baseball opened with a big hit Monday night at all of the Orinda School District's playgrounds.

Bedecked in new baseball hats, players marched to the plate to take their licks. Many a "Casey at the bat" went down swinging, but there were plenty of hits to keep the crowds cheering.

In the advanced seventh and eighth grade division, taking their first crack at a genuine horseshoe, pairs of home runs by Brad Olsen and Bruce Hancock led the bat parade.

League standings to date are not available but, according to all reports, a tight race is in the making in all three leagues.

Junior League baseball would not be possible were it not for the sponsors, names of whom will be published in next week's paper. Commissioners urge parents, friends and Orinda children to attend the games of their choice on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock and enjoy a fine evening of baseball.

Football, Softball, Hardball Vie for Summer Spotlight

By MIKE FARMER

As the days gradually become longer and the evenings warmer, more and more athletic activity can be seen at various local ball parks. Football players, anticipating arduous fall training, already are conditioning themselves through half-hearted calisthenics and simulated, touch football games.

Other players, less enthusiastic about dry-land maneuvers, have established beachheads from Pleasant Hill swimming pool to Russian River for their workouts.

Jim "Shnoz" McMillin, Pleasant Hill's All County protege and the school's first and only claim to East-West Game fame, has been breaking in the cleats for the fifth time in his career in preparation for "the big payoff" August 24, at Kezar Stadium. McMillin will play right half in Tony Knapp's backfield and is expected to see quite a bit of action, especially on defense.

Knapp has distributed a three-quarter inch booklet containing plays to be used in the game to each of the "stars of the East."

He has informed the players that there will be a full scale scrimmage on the second day of practice and that the rugged schedule can be met only by even-more-rugged pre-practice conditioning.

SANDLOT SAGAS

In another sphere of local sport, both hard and softball teams are well underway in the battles for their respective pennants.

Semi-pro hardball action at Alameda Sunday resulted in a 9-4 win by Lucky Lager over the Concord Cardinals. The Cardinals ended the game with a 3-3 record, including an impressive 6-5 victory over the same Lucky Lager team.

The brewmasters initiated the onslaught in the first inning as their leadoff man was hit by a pitched ball.

Then came the one-two-three punch, one double, two singles and three walks, which scored three men. A double and a single accounted for the next Lucky tab in the third frame.

By the seventh inning, when Lucky poured three more cans into the punchbowl, the game had turned into a batting duel. Fans were shaken out of their seventh inning stretches by an early frame double just in time to witness a triple to deep center by Lucky outfielder DeBenedetti.

The Cardinals only scoring ser-

Day Sessions for County Planners Are Proposed

An alleged delay in approving subdivision plans for Contra Costa County has led to a request that the County Planning Commission hold daytime sessions.

Frederick C. Kracke, secretary of the Association for the Progress and Improvement of Contra Costa County, in a letter asked the Board of Supervisors consideration.

He said that the "tremendous growth and development" of the county has prolonged the night meetings, and made them inadequate to deal with the problems. Additional pay for the planners might be in order with the advent of day sessions, he added.

Though Board Chairman H. L. Cummings said that there might be a hardship for persons who wanted to appear in opposition to proposals heard in the day, Thomas Heaton later said that day meetings have been discussed for several months.

Doubleheader Opens Rec Program at City Park

By MEL ALAMANO

The opening day Sunday at Walnut Creek City Park drew a large crowd. Many city officials were on hand and Mayor E. C. Counter spoke on the program for the youth of Walnut Creek.

Thanks were given to former Mayors Cherrington and Hansen for their many services.

Nearly all teams were present and after the opening balls were thrown out by officials and their guests, the games were played.

There was an overflow crowd for the games during the day and evening.

The program will continue 'til August 11 and plans for next year will be started as the boys will move up to older-age leagues. There will have to be a 14-15 year old league besides the present leagues, so another ball field will be developed somewhere.

Thought should be put to this if we are going to keep the kids busy. Many people have shown interest and unless all parents help, it will be a tough job giving all the kids a chance to play.

Summer vacations have hit most teams from time to time and key players are missed, but the waiting list has been cut almost to the end.

Games can be postponed if enough notice is given Bob Maxey at the Rec Center.

All games may have to be transferred to City Park instead of Las Lomas, so watch for changes. Coaches will be given notice.

Hardtop Action To Reach Peak Tomorrow Night

The largest hardtop conclave of the year more than 125 cars is expected for tomorrow night's hundred lap hardtop championship race at Contra Costa Speedway near Walnut Creek.

Promoter Gene Marsh signed contracts for the event with Jack London, business manager of Bay Cities Racing Association.

Time trials starting at 6:30 p.m. are due to take more than two hours as the anticipated 125 entries bid for thirty starting places in the 100-lap race. Prize money will probably exceed $1000—which would be a record amount for a 100-lap race.

In addition to the big race, there will be a trophy dash and three heat races. Ten cars will qualify for each heat.

Officials are waiting word as to whether Chuck Webb, the hottest driver in hardtop racing today, will bid for the Contra Costa title. Webb, current points leader in BCRA standings, did a spectacular driving job to win the 200-lap race at Contra Costa Speedway in May.

Other top drivers scheduled to appear are Jim Graham, San Francisco; Lee Humphreys, Richmond; Bob Caswell, San Anselmo; Joe Neault, Oakland; Lamar Barron, Hayward; Bill Maher, Vallejo; Wally Baker, Sacramento, and Johnny Franklin, San Anselmo.

Starting time for the races will be 8:30 p.m. with time trials to begin about 6:30 p.m.

Bass Stocked In State Waters

The Department of Fish and Game has stocked 247,000 largemouth bass and 89,000 smallmouth bass in various Northern California and Owens Valley waters during the past month.

All were fingerling size, and most were fish taken from waters in which a surplus existed. Some were reared at the Central Valley Hatchery near Elk Grove.

Waters stocked with largemouth and the number stocked: Folsom Lake, Sacramento, Placer and Eldorado Counties, 125,000; Hog Slough, San Joaquin County, 25,000; Putah Creek, Napa County, 60,000; Beaver Slough, San Joaquin County, 22,000; Cosumnes River, Sacramento County, 15,000.

Smallmouth plants included Putah Creek, 59,000; Folsom Lake, 20,000, and Owens River, Inyo County, 10,000.

CLASSIFIED READERS and USERS

"Here is Proof Positive" — as they say in cigarette advertising! Last year, any one Sun paper carried almost as many classified ads as the COMBINED TOTAL OF THE OTHER TWO AREA PAPERS. For example, the figures below are for only the Walnut Creek Sun newspaper OR The Sun Shopping News OR Lafayette Sun OR Orinda Sun — In other words, these figures do NOT represent a combined total of The 5 Sun papers or a combined total for the other local papers.

Don't you agree that the reason for this overwhelming response is — results. Mr. and Mrs. Contra Costa turn to The Sun when they want results. Thank you for your support during the past years on the classified pages.

Charles Apgar is Elected President of Dramateurs

Charles Apgar was elected president of the Dramateurs in a June meeting, where a calendar of activities and productions were planned. Other officers are Vice President Alice Swenning, Secretary Beth Culp, Treasurer Jane Steele. DIRECTORS ARE James Stanislavsky, president last year, Jewel Scheeline, sponsorship chairman, Wirtabel Harris, business manager, and James Harris, publicity and promotional manager. In addition to the Dramateurs' regular Fall and Spring major productions, there are two productions now in rehearsal for what promises to be a popular Summer Theatre series. The Lafayette Town Hall has been selected for the summer productions due to its pleasant informal atmosphere which lends itself to the more intimate-type Theatre in the Round type productions. THE DRAMATEURS is one of the few local little theatre groups to introduce the "arena type" theatre to local audiences, said Apgar. Van Druten's "The Voice of the Turtle" is the first production scheduled for the last two weeks in July followed by Liam O'Brien's "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" scheduled for the first two weeks-end in August. Both casts are in full rehearsal scheduled under the direction of Carl Rasmussen with Charlotte Chapple supervising the technical crews. Some interesting summer evening entertainment is anticipated.

Waters of Moon In Final Nights

Mrs. Whyte, an ill-tempered grande dame who broods on the loss of wealth and position, is one of the most popular characters in the current Playhouse Repertory Theatre production at Beach and Hyde Streets — N. C. Hunter's "Waters of the Moon" which has its last two performances, tonight and tomorrow at 8:30. Backstage audience visitors are amazed to find that Jane Steckle who creates the role of Mrs. Whyte is young, attractive and affable in sharp contrast to the aging dame she portrays on stage. Miss Steckle's early training as an actress was guided by famed Jasper Deeter of the Hedgerow Theatre near Philadelphia.

Picture Framer Is Art Speaker

Mr. William Rota, a master craftsman in framing pictures addressed members of the Diablo Art Association Monday in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1924 Walnut Avenue, Walnut Creek. Rota, Italian born, was educated in the Christian Brothers' schools in Turin before coming to the U.S.A. in 1940. He derived citizenship by serving in the U.S. Army 1942-1945.

On his release from the Army, he studied at the Arts Student League of New York, the California School of Fine Arts, and the Art League of California. His work may be seen in many private collections. He has had a one-man show, and has exhibited at several Bay Area Galleries and museums.

New Water Co. Rules Set by PUC

The California Public Utilities Commission has issued an order setting up minimum service standards for 460 water utilities under its jurisdiction. The new rules should result in better service in the future for more than one million water users in this state, say PUC spokesmen.

The rules are the result of many months of study by Commission hydraulic engineers to set up workable and practical operating utility practices and effective regulatory procedures. Later stages of this work were carried on in cooperation with representatives of the water utilities, the report states.

RULES ARE established for customer relations, the quality of water to be served, pressure to be maintained, as well as minimum standards of design and construction which will be in the public interest. The latter rules will safeguard against the installation of sub-standard water systems. Additionally, the rules are intended to govern utilities supplying non-potable water from ditches, canals or other conduits, it continues.

Peter E. Mitchell, Commission president, said "The establishment of these standard service rules will greatly aid the Commission to regulate more effectively the practices of water utilities and when adopted by the water utilities should greatly benefit California water users."

"DUE TO California's rapid growth in population some water companies, particularly in the suburban areas, have in many cases exhausted their capacity to provide adequate efficient service to meet this customer growth," Mitchell said.

"Many water companies," Mitchell added, "are burdened with the responsibility of serving additional customers and have had difficulty in maintaining proper water pressures, or in some cases a sufficient supply of water, particularly when water tables are at a low level."

The order will be effective on and after July 1.

LOTS OF OUTDOOR fiving was enjoyed by boys and girls recently at Gualala, 130 miles northwest of Walnut Creek, where the Central Contra Costa County YMCA is conducting camping activities throughout the summer. ## 'Milk is Not High' Says Federation Leader Bramkamp

Lynn Bramkamp, manager of the California Milk Producers' Federation, recently wrote to The Sun, opposing a recent statement by Russell Koch of Pleasant Hill, Democratic candidate for 10th District State Assembly, to the effect that milk prices are being deliberately kept too high.

He said, in part, "We have no quarrel with any candidate discussing the price of milk, as established under California law, insofar as such opinions fall within the realm of operations which he hopes to engage in, if elected."

"However, we would appreciate it if you, in the interest of getting all the facts before the public, would make some comparison of prices in other areas, so that the public will have a full understanding of the California milk situation."

"Milk at the retail store in Contra Costa county is 20 1/2 cents per quart. The average store price in the 25 major cities used by USDA as an index is about 23 cents per quart."

"In Portland, store milk is 24 cents per quart; in Seattle, 23 cents; in Denver, 24 cents; in Salt Lake City, 22 cents. In fact, in only three cities out of the 25 is milk selling for the same price or less than in California."

"Oregon has absolutely no milk control law; neither does Utah or Colorado. Seattle operates without any price controls on store milk."

"Therefore, under California conditions, with the resale price of milk controlled, consumers are getting the highest quality milk at one of the lowest prices in the nation."

"In fact, the price is far too low, since the dairy farmer who furnishes the milk is and has been producing milk for Contra Costa County use at 2 1/2 cents per quart less than his costs."

"While there may be many reasons to examine the operations of the California Milk Law, certainly there is none from the standpoint of any excessively high consumer price."

"Consumers have had more than excellent treatment as far as the price of milk is concerned under our law . . . they are getting one of the finest food bargains for one of the finest of Nature's foods, when they buy milk in California."

Don't throw trash from your car. It is now against the law to be a litterbug. Keep roads clean.

New Pine Creek Dam Done; Zone 3-B Job Cost $230,000

Final inspection of the Pine Creek flood detention dam was made recently by officials of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service with Contra Costa County Flood Control District engineers and the contractor.

The dam is located on Pine Creek immediately above Castle Rock Park at the southeastern edge of Ygnacio Valley.

It is a part of a Flood Control Zone 3B project of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service and the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District. Final cost will be $230,000.

THE DAM is 80 feet high and contains 120,000 cubic yards of compacted earth fill. The job was started July 22, last year, but fell behind schedule when it was learned considerably more foundation excavation was required to get down to bedrock, said engineers.

In order to complete the embankment ahead of the winter rains lights were installed on the project and all equipment worked double shifts.

Most of the earth fill was in place and the reinforced concrete outlet barrel installed before the Christmas flood. The dam held back a large portion of the flood discharge on Pine Creek and is credited by engineers with saving the Meadow Homes area of West Concord from wholesale flooding.

Many homes in this same area were flooded in the January 1951 flood which was less severe than last year's flood.

Work on this project was officially stopped on January 16, and started again April 1. The dam is

Easter Seal Drive Collects $20,300 For Unfortunates

Contra Costa County's 1956 Easter Seal campaign closed officially in April and contributions, according to Mrs. Raley Wiles, campaign chairman, totaled $20,300. This is $300 over the earlier announced goal.

Mrs. Wiles added that many families are continuing to send in contributions and she is certain that if more of the 90,000 families who received Easter Seals understand the importance of their contribution, the total will continue to rise.

SHE CONTINUED that in the past few months the contributions have provided a wide variety of services to the crippled residents of this county.

These services have included the purchasing of surgical shoes for cerebral palsied children; provision of vitamin therapy for a two-year-old child with rickets; corrective shoes for children with knock knees; speech therapy for a five-year-old boy; and provision for diagnostic services for a 14-year-old boy having convulsive seizures.

These are only a few of the many services the Easter Seal Society have provided with the contributions which have been made.

IT IS THE hope of the society that more and more services can be provided in the future in cooperation with public programs to enable many of our crippled children to become happy, healthy and well adjusted members of our society.

Mrs. Wiles is issuing this final appeal to Contra Costa residents who intend to make a contribution, but have delayed doing so, to send their contribution to the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County, 1372 Main St., Walnut Creek, or use the envelope which accompanied the seals.

School Board Group Re-elects Mrs. Adams

Mrs. Sara Adams, clerk of the Lafayette School Board, was re-elected secretary of the Contra Costa County School Boards Association in an dinner held June 20 at Clayton.

Elected president is Mrs. Phyllis Wainwright, trustee of Martinez, Elementary and Alhambra Union High School Districts since 1954.

SHE SUCCEEDS George Gordon of Martinez, trustee of the Contra Costa Junior College.

Others elected were Nat L. Richardson, Pittsburg Unified District, vice president; and Walter Weyman, San Pablo, treasurer.

Members of the new elective County Board of Education were guests of honor at the dinner and were introduced by County Superintendent B. O. Wilson.

State Senator George Miller Jr., senior member of the Senate education committee, spoke on school legislation of the past decade and the needs of the future.

Among the accomplishments Senator Miller listed increased state aid to local districts, the state school building loan program, an equalization program to provide equal educational opportunities for all children regardless of the assessed valuation of the district, expansion of special classes for the handicapped and increased teachers' salaries and retirement.

SOME OF THE needs of the future as seen by Miller are: decrease in class size, greater emphasis on trade and industrial education, more science teachers, and the preparation of society to use the new leisure resulting from automation.

Among the membership introduced to the assembled 125 association members and their guests were Carl Ferrell, Pinole-Hercules Union School District, past president of the association, and M. M. Snodgrass, Richmond Elementary District, who reported for the nominating committee.

"How old am I?"

asks Mrs. Rollin E. Jaberg
2169 Green St., San Francisco

Time was when many women used to hide their age . . . but nowadays they're apt to boast about it! One reason—and a big one: modern appliances. They're freeing women everywhere from chores that used to make them too old too soon.

Take Mrs. Jaberg, who lets appliances handle much of her work. Hard to believe, but she's actually 60 years old.

How about you? Are you increasing the staff of automatic appliances in your home? Remember, with P. G. and E.'s low rates for gas and electricity, you can run a whole household all day long for just about half the price of most lipsticks.
